Entries varied from using brick to break a back sliding glass window to breaking down doors at back or front, and breaking windows.*

Entries: Breaking windows, drilling out/popping out/punching holes in locks, leaving vehicles unlocked.

Items left in unattended vehicles that were stolen during auto burglaries: Wallets, IDs, Social Security cards, 72" flat screen TV, 15" MacBook Pro, iPod, computer bag, snowboard, $4,000 in tools from one vehicle, laptop, checks/checkbook, employer checkbook/checks, snow boots, jumper cables, tow straps, CDs, damaged to ignition and steering column in failed attempt to steal two vehicles, power tool set, key fob to another vehicle stolen.

Several of the residential burglaries occurring this month in the Foothills Area Command were to homes that were vacant due to owners being hospitalized or on vacation. Despite having house-sitters stopping by, vacant homes were targeted and burglarized. Alert neighbors were valuable in being willing to call APD when something didn't seem right and those callers did not chase or confront subjects, but called from a safe place and provided very useful information to police.
